Mueller Industries, Inc. Reports Fiscal 2023 Fourth Quarter and Full Year Results

COLLIERVILLE, Tenn., February 6, 2024 -- Mueller Industries, Inc. (NYSE: MLI) today reported 2023 fourth quarter and full year results.

For the Fourth Quarter 2023 versus Fourth Quarter 2022:

- Net income: $119.2 million vs $138.9 million, down 14.2%.
- Earnings before taxes: $177.9 million vs $185.9 million, down 4.3%.
- Net sales: $732.4 million vs $877.6 million, down 16.5%.
- Diluted EPS: $1.05 vs $1.23, down 14.6%.

For the Full Year 2023 versus the Full Year 2022:

- Net income: $602.9 million vs $658.3 million, down 8.4%.
- Earnings before taxes: $845.2 million vs $876.0 million, down 3.5%.
- Net sales: $3.4 billion vs $4.0 billion, down 14.1%.
- Diluted EPS: $5.30 vs $5.82, down 8.9%.

Fourth Quarter*/Year-End Financial and Operating Commentary:

- The net sales decline of $145.2 million in the fourth quarter was primarily attributable to lower demand in most segments and markets, particularly those products that are predominantly used in new residential construction. Fluctuations in COMEX copper prices had a nominal impact on the change in net sales.
- The Company generated $174.3 million of cash from operations in the fourth quarter, and $672.8 million for the year.
- Year-end cash and short-term investments totaled $1.3 billion, and our current ratio is 6.4 to 1.
- During the quarter, we recorded a reserve of $11.6 million related to a pending legal matter at unconsolidated affiliate, Tecumseh Products Company, which is currently under appeal.
- We have yet to recognize any insurance recovery for the significant losses we have incurred as a result of the tornado that destroyed our copper fittings operations in Covington, Tennessee. We anticipate doing so sometime during the latter half of 2024, once the business is back and operational.

* For context, the Company's current fourth quarter includes 13 weeks of results, as compared to the 14 weeks reported for the fourth quarter of 2022, the business' most profitable fourth quarter on record.

Regarding the quarter performance and outlook, Greg Christopher, Mueller's CEO said, "Our team performed exceptionally well on all fronts and delivered another quarter of excellent earnings and cash generation, despite reduced demand. Importantly, the structural changes we have made to improve gross margins are showing durability, and our manufacturing platform is well balanced for both current demand levels, as well as higher levels of demand when conditions improve.

Our business outlook is positive. There continues to be pent up demand for residential housing and needed investment in U.S. infrastructure. As rising interest rates and inflation begin to recede, demand will return as building construction activity is reignited.

Our strong cash flows and tremendous cash balance provide us the resources to execute on our strategic plans. Our top priorities are ensuring our operations are well capitalized to remain a low-cost producer, and pursuing acquisitions that strengthen our core and create greater growth avenues.

We are well positioned for long-term growth and to deliver superior returns to our shareholders."
