PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Stockholders
May 1, 2003
-----

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Mueller Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at the Company's headquarters at 8285 Tournament Drive, Suite 150, Memphis, Tennessee 38125, on Thursday, May 1, 2003, at 10:00 A.M. local time, or at any adjournment(s) thereof.

This Proxy Statement, together with the Company's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, is first being mailed on or about March 20, 2003.

When a proxy card is returned properly signed, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the stockholder's directions appearing on the card. If the proxy card is signed and returned without directions, the shares will be voted in favor of the proposals set forth thereon and for the nominees named herein. The discretion granted in the accompanying proxy card includes the authority to vote on all additional matters properly coming before the Annual Meeting as the persons named in the proxy deem appropriate. A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by giving written notice to the secretary of the Annual Meeting or by casting a ballot at the Annual Meeting. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by election inspectors appointed for the Annual Meeting. The election inspectors will also determine whether a quorum is present. The holders of a majority of the shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share ("Common Stock"), outstanding and entitled to vote who are present either in person or represented by proxy will constitute a quorum for the Annual Meeting. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted. If a broker indicates on a proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone or otherwise. The Company will reimburse brokers or other persons holding stock in their names or in the names of their nominees for their charges and expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of such stock.

VOTING SECURITIES

The Company had 34,257,419 shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on March 12, 2003, which are the only securities of the Company entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting. The record holder of each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter that may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 12, 2003, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws do not provide for cumulative voting for the election of Directors.

PRINCIPAL STOCKHOLDERS

As of March 12, 2003, the following parties were known by the Company to be the "beneficial owner" of more than five percent of the Common Stock:

<TABLE>
<CAPTION>

Name and Address of Beneficial Owner	Shares Beneficially Owned	Percent of Class
<S>	<C>	<C>
Harvey L. Karp c/o Mueller Industries, Inc. 8285 Tournament Drive, Suite 150 Memphis, Tennessee 38125	2,579,396(1)	7.0%(1)

- (1) Includes 2,400,000 shares of Common Stock which are subject to currently exercisable stock options.
- (2) Information obtained from a Schedule 13G, dated February 14, 2003, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on behalf of Warren E. Buffett, Berkshire Hathaway Inc., OBH, Inc. and National Indemnity Company. The Schedule 13G reported ownership of 2,480,900 shares of Common Stock then outstanding. The Schedule 13G reported shared voting power and shared dispositive power over 2,480,900 shares.
- (3) The percent of class shown was based on the shares of Common Stock reported on the Schedule 13G and the total number of shares outstanding as of December 31, 2002. The difference in the total number of shares outstanding on December 31, 2002 and March 12, 2003 does not materially affect the percentage of ownership of the class.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors proposes to elect the following six persons at the Annual Meeting to serve (subject to the Company's Bylaws) as directors of the Company until the next Annual Meeting (tentatively scheduled for May 6, 2004), or until the election and qualification of their successors: Gennaro J. Fulvio, Gary S. Gladstein, Terry Hermanson, Robert B. Hodes, Harvey L. Karp and William D. O'Hagan. If any such person should be unwilling or unable to serve as a director of the Company, which is not anticipated, the persons named in the proxy will vote the proxy for substitute nominees selected by them unless the number of directors has been reduced to the number of nominees willing and able to serve.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast. "Plurality" means that the individuals who receive the greatest number of votes cast "For" are elected as directors up to the maximum number of directors to be chosen at the Annual Meeting. Consequently, any shares not voted "For" a particular director (whether as result of a direction to withhold or a broker non-vote) will not be counted in such director's favor.

OWNERSHIP OF COMMON STOCK BY DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND INFORMATION ABOUT DIRECTOR NOMINEES

The following table sets forth, as of March 12, 2003, information about the 3,695,562 shares of Common Stock (calculated based on 34,257,419 shares outstanding) beneficially owned by each of the Company's current directors, nominees for director, executive officers and Named Officers (as defined under "Executive Compensation"). Unless otherwise indicated, all directors and nominees for director, executive officers and Named Officers have sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares of Common Stock reported. The table and the accompanying footnotes set forth the foregoing persons' current positions with the Company, principal occupations and employment over the preceding five years, age and directorships held in certain other publicly-owned companies.

- (1) These options vest ratably over a five year term, with the first 20% vesting on February 13, 2003, except that if there is a "Change in Control", on the later of (i) the day Mr. O'Hagan notifies the Company he is terminating as a result of said change, and (ii) ten days prior to the date Mr. O'Hagan's employment is terminated, all remaining unvested options become immediately exercisable. These options are exercisable only for shares of Common Stock held in treasury by the Company. The Company has agreed to maintain a sufficient number of treasury shares to allow for the exercise of the vested and exercisable portion of these options. "Change in Control" is defined to mean (i) a change in control which would be required to be reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission or any securities exchange on which the Common Stock is listed, (ii) any non-exempted person or party becoming the beneficial owner of securities representing 20% or more of the voting power of the Company, or (iii) when the individuals who, on February 13, 2002, constituted the Board of Directors of the Company cease to constitute at least a majority of the Board, provided that new directors are deemed to have been directors on that date if elected by or on recommendation of at least sixty percent of the directors who were directors on February 13, 2002.
- (2) These options were granted under the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan at 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock at time of grant, which, in accordance with the terms of the 1998 Stock Option Plan, is the mean between the highest and lowest sale price of the Common Stock on the last trading date immediately preceding the date of grant. For purposes of determining the potential realizable value of these options, the mean between the highest and lowest sale price of the Common Stock on the trading date immediately preceding the date of grant was used as the date of grant market price. These options vest annually in 20% increments over a five-year term, with the first 20% vesting on February 13, 2003.
- (3) These options were granted under the Company's 1994 Stock Option Plan at 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock at time of grant, which, in accordance with the terms of the 1994 Stock Option Plan, is the mean between the highest and lowest sale price of the Common Stock on the last trading date immediately preceding the date of grant. For purposes of determining

Employment Contracts and Termination of Employment Arrangements

Effective as of September 17, 1997, the Company amended and restated Harvey L. Karp's then existing employment agreement (as amended and restated, the "Karp Employment Agreement"). The Karp Employment Agreement has a three-year rolling term which is automatically extended so that the unexpired term on any date is always three years, unless either party gives written notice of his or its intention not to extend the term. The Karp Employment Agreement provides for Mr. Karp to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company. Under the terms of the Karp Employment Agreement, Mr. Karp is to receive (i) an annual base salary of $606,373 (to be adjusted upward annually at a rate commensurate with increases granted to other key executives), and (ii) a discretionary cash incentive bonus consistent with the executive bonus program which the Company establishes for other key executives. In addition, Mr. Karp is to receive reimbursement for reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the performance of his duties and will participate in all bonus, incentive, stock option, pension, disability and health plans and programs and all fringe benefit plans maintained by the Company in which senior executives participate.

Under the terms of the Karp Employment Agreement, Mr. Karp's employment may be terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Karp Employment Agreement) or by Mr. Karp for Good Reason (as defined in the Karp Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. In either such event, Mr. Karp will continue to receive his then-current base salary as if his employment had continued for the remainder of the then-current three-year term and an annual bonus for the remainder of the then-current three-year term equal to the average bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the written notice of termination. In addition, all outstanding unvested Company stock options then held by Mr. Karp will immediately vest and become exercisable and Mr. Karp will continue to participate in the Company's health plans and programs at the Company's expense for the remainder of such three-year term.

Mr. Karp may resign voluntarily without Good Reason upon appropriate written notice to the Company. In such event, Mr. Karp will be entitled to receive any accrued but unpaid base salary and, at the Company's discretion, a bonus for the calendar year in which his resignation without Good Reason occurs. The Company may terminate Mr. Karp's employment for Cause (as defined in the Karp Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. In such event, Mr. Karp will forfeit all existing Company stock options, but such options shall remain exercisable for the 30-day period following Mr. Karp's receipt of the written notice. Mr. Karp may terminate his employment for any reason within six months following a Change in Control (as defined in the Karp Employment Agreement). In such event, the Company will pay to Mr. Karp a lump sum amount equal to (i) three times his then current base salary, and (ii) three times his average annual bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the date of termination. In addition, all outstanding unvested options then held by Mr. Karp shall become immediately exercisable. In the event that any Payment (as defined in the Karp Employment Agreement) would be subject to the excise tax imposed by the "Golden Parachute" regulations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), Mr. Karp would be entitled to a gross-up payment from the Company to cover such taxes.

Effective as of May 12, 2000, the Company amended and restated William D. O'Hagan's then existing employment agreement (as amended and restated, the "O'Hagan Employment Agreement"). The O'Hagan Employment Agreement provides for Mr. O'Hagan to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company for a rolling three-year term, which is automatically extended so that the unexpired term on any date is always three years, unless either party gives written notice of his or its intention not to extend the term (the "Employment

Period"). Under the terms of the O'Hagan Employment Agreement, Mr. O'Hagan is to receive (i) an annual base salary of $413,430 (to be adjusted upward annually at a rate commensurate with increases granted to other key executives) and (ii) a discretionary cash incentive bonus consistent with the executive bonus program which the Company establishes for other key executives. In addition, Mr. O'Hagan is to receive reimbursement for reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the performance of his duties and will participate in all bonus, incentive, stock option, pension, disability and health plans and programs and all fringe benefit plans maintained by the Company in which senior executives participate.

Under the terms of the O'Hagan Employment Agreement, Mr. O'Hagan's employment may be terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the O'Hagan Employment Agreement) or by Mr. O'Hagan for Good Reason (as defined in the O'Hagan Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. In either such event, Mr. O'Hagan will continue to receive his then-current base salary as if his employment had continued for the remainder of the Employment Period and an annual bonus for the remainder of the Employment Period equal to the average bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the written notice of termination. In addition, all outstanding unvested Company stock options then held by Mr. O'Hagan will immediately vest and become exercisable and Mr. O'Hagan will continue to participate in the Company's health plans and programs at the Company's expense until he reaches age 65.

Mr. O'Hagan may resign voluntarily without Good Reason upon appropriate written notice to the Company. In such event, Mr. O'Hagan will be entitled to receive any accrued but unpaid base salary and, at the Company's discretion, a bonus for the calendar year in which his resignation without Good Reason occurs. The Company may terminate Mr. O'Hagan's employment for Cause (as defined in the O'Hagan Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. If Mr. O'Hagan's employment is terminated for Cause or if Mr. O'Hagan voluntarily resigns for any reason other than Good Reason, his right to receive his base salary, bonus, and any other compensation and benefits to which he would otherwise be entitled under the O'Hagan Employment Agreement shall be forfeited as of the date of termination. Mr. O'Hagan may terminate his employment for any reason within six months following a Change in Control (as defined in the O'Hagan Employment Agreement). In such event, the Company will pay to Mr. O'Hagan a lump sum amount equal to (i) his then current base salary multiplied by the number of years (including partial years) then remaining in the Employment Period, and (ii) his average annual bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the date of termination multiplied by the number of years (including partial years) then remaining in the Employment Period. In addition, all remaining unvested options previously granted to Mr. O'Hagan shall become immediately exercisable.

Effective as of October 17, 2002, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Kent A. McKee, the Company's Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (the "McKee Employment Agreement"). The McKee Employment Agreement provides for Mr. McKee to serve as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company for a rolling three-year term, which is automatically extended so that the unexpired term on any date is always three years, unless either party gives written notice of his or its intention not to extend the term (the "Employment Period"). Under the terms of the McKee Employment Agreement, Mr. McKee is to receive (i) an annual base salary of $240,000 (to be adjusted upward annually at a rate commensurate with increases granted to other key executives) and (ii) a discretionary cash incentive bonus consistent with the executive bonus program which the Company establishes for other key executives. In addition, Mr. McKee is to receive reimbursement for reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the performance of his duties and will participate in all bonus, incentive, stock option, pension, disability and health plans and programs and all fringe benefit plans maintained by the Company in which senior executives participate.

Under the terms of the McKee Employment Agreement, Mr. McKee's employment may be terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the McKee Employment Agreement) or by Mr. McKee for Good Reason (as defined in the McKee Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. In either such event, Mr. McKee will continue to receive his then-current base salary as if his employment had continued for the remainder of the Employment Period and an annual bonus for the remainder of the Employment Period equal to the average bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the written notice of termination. In addition, all outstanding unvested Company stock options then held by Mr. McKee will immediately vest and become exercisable and Mr. McKee will continue to participate in the Company's health plans and programs at the Company's expense until he reaches age 65.

Mr. McKee may resign voluntarily without Good Reason upon appropriate written notice to the Company. In such event, Mr. McKee will be entitled to receive any accrued but unpaid base salary and, at the Company's discretion, a bonus for the calendar year in which his resignation without Good Reason occurs. The Company may terminate Mr. McKee's employment for Cause (as defined in the McKee Employment Agreement) upon appropriate written notice. If Mr. McKee's employment is terminated for Cause or if Mr. McKee voluntarily resigns for any reason other than Good Reason, his right to receive his base salary, bonus, and any other compensation and benefits to which he would otherwise be entitled under the McKee Employment Agreement shall be forfeited as of the date of termination. Mr. McKee may terminate his employment for any reason within six months following a Change in Control (as defined in the McKee Employment Agreement). In such event, the Company will pay to Mr. McKee a lump sum amount equal to (i) his then current base salary multiplied by the number of years (including partial years) then remaining in the Employment Period, and (ii) his average annual bonus for the three calendar years immediately preceding the date of termination multiplied by the number of years (including partial years) then remaining in the Employment Period. In addition, all remaining unvested options previously granted to Mr. McKee shall become immediately exercisable.

The Company does not have any other employment agreements with Named Officers. Except as set forth above, the Company has no compensatory plan or arrangement with respect to any Named Officer which would result in severance or change-in-control payments in excess of $100,000.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE (1)

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services provided by the independent auditors with the auditor's independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board of Directors has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10K for the year ended December 28, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection as the Company's independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2003.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Base compensation payable to Mr. Karp, the Company's Chairman, and to Mr. O'Hagan, its Chief Executive Officer, is principally governed by the terms of their employment agreements. Pursuant to these agreements, Mr. Karp and Mr.

O'Hagan received base compensation of $801,190 and $546,260, respectively, for 2002. Neither Mr. Karp nor Mr. O'Hagan received an increase in base compensation for the 2002 fiscal year.

The employment agreements for Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan also provide for payment of an annual discretionary cash bonus consistent with the executive bonus program which the Company establishes for other key executives. For 2002, Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan were awarded discretionary bonuses in the amount of 100% and 95%, respectively, of their gross wages (excluding bonuses for 2001 which were paid in 2002, and certain other miscellaneous items). The bonuses paid to Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan were recommended by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors based on the favorable assessment of their contributions to the Company's performance in 2002. Concurrent with his tenth anniversary of his employment with the Company, Mr. O'Hagan received a supplemental discretionary bonus of $250,000 in recognition of his contributions to the Company's performance during his employment.

The Compensation Committee did not increase base compensation payable to other executive officers at the beginning of 2002. The base compensation for each of the other named officers was increased in May, 2002 by an average of approximately 2%, based on recommendations from Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan. In addition, effective October 17, 2002, the compensation of Mr. McKee was increased pursuant to the McKee Employment Agreement. Bonuses paid to officers other than Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan for 2002 did not exceed 43% of gross wages (excluding bonuses for 2001 which were paid in 2002, and certain other miscellaneous items). These bonuses were paid pursuant to (i) the Company's 2002 bonus program, which provided for bonuses to be paid based on the Company's attainment of income targets for fiscal 2002 and (ii) discretionary bonuses in the amount of $25,000 or less paid to certain Company officers.

The Compensation Committee periodically grants stock options to executive officers and other key employees as part of the Company's overall executive compensation program. During the 2002 fiscal year, the Compensation Committee granted options to acquire an aggregate of 48,000 shares of Common Stock to executive officers other than Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan, based in part on recommendations from Messrs. Karp and O'Hagan. When granting options to executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the total number of shares available under the Company's option plans, the number of options previously granted to such officers, Company and individual performance, and each officer's level of responsibility within the Company. However, no specific corporate or individual performance factors are used. The Compensation Committee believes that stock options are an integral part of the Company's executive compensation program, which motivate executives to practice long-term strategic management, and align their financial interests with those of the Company's stockholders. On February 13, 2002, the Board of Directors approved a special option grant of 100,000 shares of Common Stock to Mr. O'Hagan. The options were granted at fair market value at the time of grant, have a ten year term, and vest ratably over five years, except under certain circumstances if there is a "Change in Control". Such options were granted in recognition of Mr. O'Hagan's contributions to the Company's success and as Mr. O'Hagan had not been granted options by the Company since October, 1998.

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility of compensation paid to each of the Named Officers to $1 million per year, subject to certain exceptions. The Compensation Committee is comprised of "outside" directors and the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan has been structured so that compensation attributable to options will qualify as "performance based" compensation, which is excluded from the determination of the annual maximum deductible amount. If, because of competitive factors, individual performance or changes in tax provisions, the Compensation Committee determines that it is appropriate to pay one or more executive officers compensation in excess of the annual maximum deductible amount, the Compensation Committee would expect to authorize such compensation. During 2002, Mr. Karp's and Mr. O'Hagan's annual cash compensation exceeded the maximum deductible amount.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Ernst & Young LLP ("E & Y") has, upon the recommendation of the Company's Audit Committee, been selected and appointed by the Board of Directors to audit and certify the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2003, subject to ratification by the Company's stockholders. If the appointment of E & Y is not ratified by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors will reconsider its action and will appoint auditors for the 2003 fiscal year without further stockholder action. Further, even if the appointment is ratified by stockholder action, the Board of Directors may at any time in the future in its discretion reconsider the appointment without submitting the matter to a vote of stockholders. It is expected that representatives of E & Y will be in attendance at the Annual Meeting and will be available to answer questions and to make a statement if they desire to do so.

During the fiscal years ending December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001, fees were incurred as follows: 2002, for the annual audit -- $592,000; all other fees -- $486,000, which included audit related services of $150,000, and non-audit services of $336,000; and 2001, for the annual audit -- $598,000; all other fees -- $663,000, which included audit related services of $412,000, and non-audit services of $251,000. The Company did not engage E & Y to provide advice to the Company regarding financial information systems design and implementation during fiscal years ended December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE THEIR SHARES FOR THE PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY.

STOCKHOLDER NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD MEMBERSHIP
AND OTHER PROPOSALS FOR 2004 ANNUAL MEETING

It is anticipated that the next Annual Meeting after the one scheduled for May 1, 2003 will be held on or about May 6, 2004. The Company's Bylaws require that, for nominations of directors or other business to be properly brought before an Annual Meeting, written notice of such nomination or proposal for other business must be furnished to the Company. Such notice must contain certain information concerning the nominating or proposing stockholder and information concerning the nominee and must be furnished by the stockholder (who must be entitled to vote at the meeting) to the Secretary of the Company, in the case of the annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2004 no earlier than January 31, 2004 and no later than March 2, 2004. A copy of the applicable provisions of the Bylaws may be obtained by any stockholder, without charge, upon written request to the Secretary of the Company at the address set forth below.

Since the Company did not receive timely notice of any stockholder proposal for the 2003 Annual Meeting, it will have discretionary authority to vote on any stockholder proposals presented at such meeting.

In addition to the foregoing, and in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, in order for a stockholder proposal, relating to a proper subject, to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the Annual Meeting to be held in 2004, such proposal must be received by the Secretary of the Company by November 18, 2003 in the form required under and subject to the other requirements of the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. If the date of the Annual Meeting to be held in 2004 is changed to a date more than 30 days earlier or later than May 6, 2004, the Company will inform the stockholders in a timely fashion of such change and the date by which proposals of stockholders must be received for inclusion in the proxy materials. Any such proposal should be submitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, or other means, including electronic means, that allow the stockholder to prove the date of delivery.

OTHER MATTERS TO COME BEFORE THE MEETING

If any matter not described herein should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote the shares represented by them as they deem appropriate. At the date of this Proxy Statement, the Company knew of no other matters which might be presented for stockholder action at the Annual Meeting.
